

ABIGAIL MIHALY

CONTACT:

abigail.mihaly@gmail.com
(802) 522-0791
Website: abigailmihaly.com

EDUCATION:

Dartmouth College, 2021
Hanover, N.H.
Magna Cum Laude
Bachelor of Arts in Comparative Literature,
focus on Spanish and Latin American Studies

- Thesis: The Displaced Poet: Forced Cosmopolitanism and the Dislocated Nation in Transatlantic Exile Poetry (High Honors)

Northfield Mount Hermon
High School, 2017
Mount Hermon, Mass.

SKILLS & MEMBERSHIPS:

- Fluent in Spanish
- Basic skills in Python, MATLAB, Stata, InDesign
- Member of NewsGuild-CWA

HOBBIES:

- Camping, hiking, biking; playing the violin; knitting and sewing.

JOURNALISM:

Inside EPA, Washington, D.C. — September 2021 to May 2026

Managing Editor for InsideEPA's climate policy section "Climate Extra"

- Co-managed climate coverage for Inside EPA, a publication providing daily online news and weekly print newsletters. Climate Extra team of 3-5 reporters covers federal climate policy at the Environmental Protection Agency and other agencies, Congress and more.
- Pitched and wrote 1-2 stories daily, from breaking news to analysis (500-2,000 words).
- Contributed 2-3 stories for "Outlook" report each January analyzing expected trends in climate policy for the upcoming year.
- Tracked and analyzed federal rules, litigation, and other policy developments. Fostered relationships with regular sources including environmentalists, lawyers, regulators, industry.
- Regular beats: litigation over Trump-era climate grant cuts; climate-related financial policy, power plant greenhouse gas standards, Energy Department appliance efficiency standards.
- Led InsideEPA's on-the-ground coverage at COP28 climate negotiations in Dubai, UAE.

The Hill, Washington, D.C. (remote) — June to August 2020

Campaigns/General Assignment Intern

- Filed ~15 stories each week about congressional events, primary election prewrites, breaking news. Contributed to real-time primary election-night coverage across ten states.
- Co-pitched three-part series on national trends in COVID-19 university protocols. Wrote stories on quarantine protocols amid return to campus; testy town-gown relations.

The Dartmouth (campus daily), Hanover, N.H. — 2017 to 2021

News Reporter 2017 to 2020

Managing Editor for news 2020 to 2021

- Managed a news team of 60+ students. Pitched and edited stories.
- Led breaking news, investigative reporting, COVID-19 coverage.

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Pittsburgh, Pa. — January to March 2020

News/General Assignment Intern

- Covered Pittsburgh events, court hearings, protests.
- Pitched stories and wrote on assignment; earned 2-5 bylines/week.
- Wrote front-page story on prejudice against local Asian restaurants during COVID-19.

TEACHING & RESEARCH:

The Family Place, Washington, D.C. — 2024 to present

Assistant Teacher for "Foundations of Learning" Course – November 2025 to present

- Develop curriculum and teach literacy classes four nights a week for Spanish-speaking adults working toward a primary or secondary school degree.
- Lesson topics span a wide array of basic skills across reading, writing, math, science.

Vermont Law School, South Royalton, Vt. — annually since 2022

Annual guest lecturer in course on green finance.

Rauner Special Collections Library, Hanover, N.H. — 2018 to 2021

Oral History Interviewer with SpeakOut Project

- Documented LGBTQIA+ alumni stories; trained by library staff in oral history methods.
- Research Assistant*
- Assistant to archivists: researched materials for educational visits.